NEW BUSINESS

- 1-A. Awards Presentation – The Commission presented Tom Thompson with the “Selfless Volunteer Award” and Saby Rivera with the “Character Counts Sportsmanship Award.”
- 1-B. Summer Nights Series – Tom Boecking announced that the Summer Nights Series will take place in the Mission District and Vincent Lugo Park from June 11 through August 6.
- 1-C. Department Monthly Report - Afterschool programs have come to a conclusion and the programs this year were a success. The 57th annual drill team competition was held on Saturday, May 23, with Wilson Wildcats taking first place. Aquatics are gearing up for summer although due to the drought the department has had to cut back on the wading pool hours. Marshall Park plans are now in initial review and some minor changes have been made. Correa asked if there were any updates on the materials they will be using for the playground platform. Boecking explained it will be a form of Nike recycled shoes which are toxic free. Kids Day & 4th of July Parade will be held on the 4th of July at Smith Park. Vice-Chair Lubisich wanted clarification about summer programs. Boecking clarified that Day Camp will be held at Washington Elementary School and the specialty dance, science and fitness camps which will be held at Vincent Lugo Park. Jefferson, Roosevelt, Smith Park and Vincent Lugo Park will be free recreation sites for the summer.

1-D. Commissioners Report – Commissioner Mullen was excited to share that she was able to attend the 50th Anniversary of La Laguna and reported that there was a great turnout. Commissioner Correa announced that the AYSO has their last registration in June. Vice-Chair Lubisich wanted to thank the staff for helping with the La Laguna event.

1-E. Dates to Remember – Next Commission meeting will be held Monday, October 5, 2015.
