SAN GABRIEL TO HOST FALL FUN FESTIVAL OCT. 28

SAN GABRIEL, CA – Community members can enjoy a host of fun Halloween-themed treats at the city's third annual Fall Fun Festival on Friday, Oct. 28 from 5-9 p.m. in the Mission District.

The free event will feature a pumpkin patch, a costume contest, free family photos, kids' activities, games, trunk-or-treating, free food and holiday movies in the San Gabriel Mission Playhouse.

For those looking for a spooky thrill, there will be a "Haunted Zone" in Grapevine Arbor Park that will include a maze and other frightening activities for older children (recommended ages 12 and up).

The festival is free to attend and goes from 5-9 p.m. in the historic Mission District, 320 S Mission Drive. The Haunted Zone begins at 6:30 p.m. and ends at 9 p.m. in Grapevine Arbor Park and the Adult Recreation Center, 324 S Mission Drive. Costume contest registration will be from 5-6 p.m. and awards will be given out at 7:15 p.m.

Street closure: Mission Drive will be closed from Santa Anita to Carmelita from 3-11 p.m.
